1. In March 1948 a primary aviation school, teaching the fundamental principles of navigation and aviation, was organized by the Chinese Communists at Mouping (121-37, 37-24). The course, which is being attended by approximately 150 students, will last about ten weeks. Upon completion of this basic course, the students will be sent to Chiamussu (130-21, 46-49) for fifteen weeks of advanced training.

2. At present the aviation training school at Chiamussu has between 2,500 and 3,000 students attending. It is commanded by Major General WU Ke-hua (吳克華).

Note: WU Ke-hua has been reported as commander of the 4 Column of the East Liaoning Field Headquarters. In a later report a WU Ke-hua was listed as a member of the pro-Soviet LI Li-san clique.)
